THE SINGER'S GYM for YOUNG ARTIST PROGRAMS

What we do

The Singer's Gym for Young Artist Programs offers an intensive experience in connection for the professional singer. We focus on four areas of connection...

- To the score,
- The space
- To the character
- To relationships (in duos, trios,

While we do not work on vocal technique, every singer who has been through this workshop sounds considerably better and is more relaxed and freer when they audition and perform.

Who we are

The workshops are led by Ben Bernstein and Mark Morash.

Ben Bernstein (left), is an award winning opera composer, acting teacher, director and performance psychologist. Mark Morash is a conductor, recital accompanist, and formerly Director of Music Studies at the San Francisco Opera Center. He is presently Head of Music and Chorus Master at the Calgary Opera.

“Ben and Mark have enormous talent, knowledge and humor. They are a very dynamic duo.”
